AND FINALLY...

❖ MRDF Collection

Our collection during harvest last week for MRDF raised over £350 and the gifts for the Archer project will be taken down this week. Thank you all for your generosity.

❖ Newsletter Rota

Now that Rob has moved churches we could do with another person to edit the newsletter. A small amount of skill with a computer is helpful but you do not need to be an expert. If you are interested or would like more information, please see Matt.

❖ Fairtrade

Money is "tight". It is even more important now to support the people in the world who have none. We agreed a long time ago as a church to support Fair Trade.

- Please look for the Fair Trade signs in the shops
- Support our Fair Trade agency by having a regular order from Audrey or Teresa and Scott (St Thomas's)
- Ask for the keys to see what we stock on church premises

Support us please. Audrey.

PLEASE PRAY...

The Fijian government has banned all Methodist Church meetings except for Sunday worship in an unprecedented crackdown on religious freedom. This includes house groups, women's prayer fellowships, choir practices, mid-week communion services and youth fellowships, as well as the Church's governance meetings.

Having withdrawn the permit for the Church's annual Conference the evening before the event was due to start, the interim government has now notified the Church in a letter from the Fiji Military Council that all other meetings of the Methodist Church are forbidden. All Methodist ministers are also forbidden from leaving the country for any meeting. The Church is responding with prayer and fasting. A planned press conference had to be cancelled because of the fear of further arrests. The Methodist Church is the largest faith group in Fiji and the only group to receive this treatment by the government.

"We are gravely concerned about how this situation is developing," said Michael King, World Church Relationships team leader for the Methodist Church in Britain. "Our brothers and sisters in Fiji are asking us to keep them in our prayers and to tell the world their story. We are worried for Fiji. We are not only worried about religious freedom, but also about what the loss of other freedoms might mean for all Fijians in this traditionally democratic island nation."

The Methodist Church in Britain is calling for prayer, particularly for the leaders of the Fijian Methodist Church, the Revd Ame Tugau (President), the Revd Tuillilakila Waqairatu (General Secretary) and the Revd Tevita Banivanua (Deputy General Secretary) as well as for the country's interim prime minister, Commodore Voreqe Bainimarama.

You may also want to consider writing to your MP or MEP about the situation, as well as contacting the Fijian Government.

The editor for the month of October is Matt. Please place items for the newsletter in the pigeon hole, send an e-mail to newsletter@wesleyhall.org.uk or call Matt on [REDACTED] by Wednesday evening
