❖ Walkley Ebenezer Flower Festival

Our friends at Walkley Ebenezer are organising a Flower Festival as part of Walkley Festival's theme, 'Wilder Walkley'. This will take place on Saturday 24th June 2023 from 12pm to 4pm.

COMING SOON

❖ Open the Book: A Story Well Told

A Bible story well told has the power to spark the imagination, inspire exploration, give hope, create a smile, teach important lessons, and connect generations. As part of the Bible Society's 'A Story Well Told' tour, Bob Hartman, along with friends, will be at All Saints Ecclesall on Friday 7th July at 2pm-4pm, to explore the power of Bible storytelling. Hear more about Open the Book and get everything you need for a story well told. For more information and to buy tickets, please see this link.

❖ Save the Date – Liz Harding is getting married!

Liz & Andy will be getting married at Greenhill Methodist Church on Saturday 23rd September at 12 noon, and anyone at Wesley Hall is very welcome to go to the service. It would be lovely to see you there. Love from Liz Harding and Andy Evans.

AND FINALLY...

❖ Pat Wright

Pat would like to thank everyone for their prayers and good wishes. She has temporarily moved into Northfield Care Home, Roebuck Road, S6 3GP, and is in room 3 on the first floor. She will be there for the next two weeks. Please continue to pray for a long-term plan for her living arrangements.

❖ 'How to be a Just Church in an Unjust World'

A magazine from the Sheffield District with stories from around the district, of Methodist groups working towards the Justice of God's Kingdom in the communities they serve. A number of copies are available at the back of the worship area.

❖ Same-Sex Marriage

At a recent meeting the Church Council voted to allow Wesley Hall to be registered to be able to conduct same-sex marriages. The process for registration takes a number of months, so it will be a while before the building is registered. This decision follows decades of discussion on same-sex relationships by the national Methodist Church, and a number of meetings in our own church to reflect on this issue. I recognise that our church, like many churches, has a range of views on same-sex relationships and some in the church may disagree with this decision. If anyone in the church would like to talk about this, please contact me, Rev Mike Jones, on 07485 779262, michael.jones@methodist.org.uk.

PRAYER POINTS

- ❖ Please pray for those known to us who are ill, in hospital or recovering from surgery.
- ❖ For our application to Biffa Award for funding for a new heating system, that the application would be successful, and work would be able to start this autumn, ready for the winter.
- ❖ For our car park resurfacing project, that it would progress quickly, and that the application would be submitted soon.
- ❖ Please continue to pray for a resolution to the war in Ukraine, that peace may prevail.
- ❖ Thank you for Wesley Wigglers, for the growth of the group and for all those who are coming along.
- ❖ For upcoming meetings about the future of youth work and mission at Wesley Hall.
- ❖ For the continued exploration of how we can use our building and location to reach out and serve the people of Crookes.

If you have any prayer points to include in the newsletter, please pass them on to the Editor (see contact details at bottom of page).
