

❖ Community Weekend Update

On 23rd – 25th November, a small team from Cliff College will be helping us widen the cross-section of the Crookes community who know what Wesley Hall has to offer them. It will be a busy but useful and fun weekend, including:

During the Week-Please share the magic show invite you were given on the way in with a friend, relative or neighbour and chat to them about the questions on the reverse.

Friday 23rd 7:30pm- chance to meet the Cliff students and discuss the weekend

Saturday 24th

1. Messy Church – for those with children, Messy Church at 10am provides a great space to play, chat and eat together. (see also the item from Liz below)
2. 12-4pm- We will be giving away cakes to those walking along Crookes past our front door, whilst politely asking a few questions of people's perception/ awareness of the church. If you enjoy chatting to people, and can spare some time, please sign up today.

If you enjoy baking, please make us some cupcakes, or similarly non-messy cakes

Sunday 25th

1. Bring and Share Lunch- after the morning service (led by Rev Catrin Harland and the Cliff students), including hearing what was said to us on Saturday
2. 6pm free community magic show by the excellent Steve Macbeth. This is for all ages. Do think about who you could invite to it. It will last for about an hour, and be followed by refreshments and a display of the diverse groups/ events which happen here.

❖ A word from Liz, our Children and Families Worker:

The last Messy Church was a great success. You can find out more about it via the church website, or ask me. Our next one is on Saturday 24th November and our theme is "Light". If you know any friends or family who might be interested please do pick up a flyer from church and invite them along. It is aimed at children up to 11 years. We are going to light the hall with lots of fairy lights and we need a torch for each child. If you have any Christmas tree lights or torches which we could borrow, we'd be very grateful. It would be a good idea to put your name on anything you lend us, in case we get buried under many similar sets of lights! Much love, Liz

❖ Walkley Ebenezer Christmas Fair

This will be held on Saturday 24th November and will open from 10:00am to 12:30pm during which coffee will be served. Lunch which will be served at 12:30 pm the price is £5.50 for adults and £3.50 for children. To assist with catering please obtain a ticket in advance for Lunch from Margaret Worfolk.
