AND FINALLY...

❖ Rota for the Caterpillar Crèche:

Many thanks to those who have offered to staff the newly launched crèche. If anyone else would be interested in looking after the little ones and helping them explore the resources in the crèche, please speak to Liz. The service is relayed into the crèche room so you would still be able to hear the speaker.

Also, many thanks for your pop drinking efforts and provision of plastic bottles. The children at Messy Church last week enjoyed making ravens and then flying them around the room and using them to take Elijah (AKA Bethan) bread in his 'Raven Ravine Restaurant'. You can see an example raven on the Messy Church noticeboard downstairs.

❖ A Big Thank You

To our friends at Wesley Hall, Jim and I would like to say a big thank you to all who have supported us over the past months. We couldn't have done it without you. Prayers, cards, flowers and food have been in abundance and sent with so much love. It has been a long time but I feel as if I am coming to the end of a long struggle. Things haven't gone well at times but sometimes God has a plan and I feel he just wanted me to relax and rely on others. Jim has been a star and has been there every moment for me so thanks. Love Dorothy.

❖ Action for Children Boxes

These were due for collection in March but we would appreciate it if you would give them to Jim or I as soon as possible. Many thanks, Dorothy.

❖ Holiday

Matt is on holiday from this Thursday 3rd until Monday 14th July so will not be available for any building related issues!
