THIS WEEK

❖ Worship in the Building – COVID Precautions

- Please be considerate of those who wish to maintain social distancing and ask before sitting close to somebody.
- We are not passing the offering plate around, but there is one on the hatch where we serve tea/coffee. Please make use of it if you have brought an offering with you today.

COMING SOON

❖ 'Stations of Lament'

Highfield Trinity Church are hosting this textiles art project by Rev. Louise Carr, forming an interactive pilgrimage for the season of remembrance. This will be accompanied by 'The Pandemic Experience', a glass artwork by Rev. Rachel Parkinson.

The dates are:

Thursday 10th, Friday 11th and Monday 14th November, from 11am to 7pm;

Saturday 12th November, from 11am to 2pm.

In addition, there will be 'Lament': a choral music event from Steel City Choristers, providing a soundscape to the 'Stations of Lament' exhibition. This will take place on Saturday 12th November, 4.00pm to 5.30pm.

Entrance to all events is free and all are welcome.

❖ Save the Date – Christmas Fair

Our Christmas Fair this year will be slightly earlier than usual, on Saturday 19th November. It will be the usual mix of stalls, kids' activities and a café downstairs serving drinks, cakes and light lunches. Please save the date and if you know anyone who might be interested in taking a stall, please put them in touch with Matt.

During the fair, there will be a tombola. If you have any small gifts you could donate as prizes for this, please see Sue Mills.

CHILDREN & FAMILIES

- ❖ The TRIBE rota is at the back of the church, there are still a few gaps for both the leader and the second person (to help the leader), so please take a look and pop your name down if you are able to help with any of them.
- ❖ Our next Messy Church is on Saturday 5th November; families with young children, please come along! The next Messy Church dates for your diaries are: 3rd December and 4th February, with our next Stay & Play on 14th January in-between!

AND FINALLY...

❖ Wesley Hall Church Offering

This year (2022/23) the Circuit Assessment for Wesley Hall has increased to £31,150 but the amount that we expect from the offertory is £24,000. With Gift Aid, this brings the total offertory income to just over £28,150 which is £3,000 short of the Assessment figure. The Circuit support us by providing a Minister, admin support through the office, and grants towards our children, families and youth work, so it is important that we continue to pay our full contribution to the Assessment.

We are therefore asking that people prayerfully review their regular offering to the church, with a view to increasing it, if possible. We are very aware of the generosity of the congregation, especially with our ongoing commitment to funding Neil and Jane to support their outreach work. In the current economic climate, we fully understand that this might not be possible for everyone. Any other fundraising ideas will be gratefully received!

If you do not currently give regularly and would like to start, popular methods are standing order or weekly offering envelope. If you are a UK taxpayer, your gift can be increased by 25% at no extra cost to yourself using Gift Aid. If you have any questions about giving to church, please see our treasurer, Matt Irons.

❖ A Story of the Year 2022

Sharing stories is one way to demonstrate how God is working in our lives, our churches and our communities. The Sheffield District have been exploring the importance of sharing these stories over the last year, so for the first time, they have created an annual report style collection of stories showing how they are fulfilling the District mission strategy 'For Such a Time as This'. Each circuit is featured so they'd like to thank everyone who has contributed to this magazine and have made it possible. Find the digital format here.

Creating printed materials is one way they are making sure they are being more inclusive, as not everyone wants to read off a screen or likes to receive things in a digital format. Therefore, paper copies of the magazine will be made available shortly; more information to follow.

❖ 'Warm Spaces'

We are exploring the idea of offering something under the 'Warm Spaces' scheme, where people can come and sit inside a warm building if they are struggling to heat their own homes. This is likely to be in the Church Hall, with hot drinks available so people can come, chat and perhaps play board games or something similar. Two potential time slots we have come up with are Tuesdays from 1-3pm or Wednesdays from 1-4pm, but in order to offer anything we will need people to be here to welcome and chat to those who come along. If you are interested in helping with this, please see Matt.

❖ Update on Mike

Thank you for all your prayers for Mike, following his recent attack. He is now recovering at home, with strict instructions to rest, and the Circuit are covering while he recuperates. If you have any pastoral concerns while Mike is off sick, please contact Rev. Romeo Pedro, who will then refer to a member of the Circuit staff.

❖ Andrea at Mercy Ships

I very much appreciate the prayer support from so many of you. I am amazed at some of the truly incredible surgeries that are done on ship, especially the maxillofacial ones, where at times, dreadfully huge tumours are removed from a patient's face; then the patient's face has to be reconstructed because in order to remove the tumour, parts of the face have had to also be removed. Having listened to Dr Gary Parker, a surgeon who has worked on Mercy Ships for 35 years, give a very graphic presentation on how tumours are removed, and facial reconstruction done, I am truly amazed at the skill and knowledge needed to do such operations. Recently a patient was operated on for an incredible 16 hours to reconstruct parts of his face following the removal of a tumour in May. In the West, such tumours would have normally been removed as soon as they started to grow, but due to not having access to surgery because of the cost, the size of some tumours is truly horrendous.

I have started a Just Giving fund-raising page for Mercy Ships; if you would like to donate, please log onto: www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Andrea-Killingsworth1.

If you would like to know more about Mercy Ships, please visit www.mercyships.org. On the website, you will see other ways that you can donate.

God bless, Andrea

PRAYER POINTS
