THIS WEEK...

❖ Local Arrangements on 18th August

We have been given access to the UK Methodist Church's 'Twelve Baskets' worship resources, designed for churches' Local Arrangement services, so on 18th August we're going to give this a go. All the parts of each service have been pre-prepared, so all we need to do is read them out. In order that we're not sat listening to just one person talk, it would be good if we had several people who would be willing to take part; the more participants, the better. We'll need people to read out prayers, bible readings and reflections, none of which are more than about a couple of minutes. If you feel you could be part of this, please see/message Andrew Gray. Thanks.

COMING SOON...

❖ Radical Hospitality – Saturday 14 September

This free conference at Priory Place in Doncaster will bring together Methodists from churches across our District to think about what it means to be truly hospitable and why we must be radical in this hospitality. We will be challenged, inspired and educated by Emma Nash (Connexional Mission & Community Engagement Officer) and worship with Matt Beckingham (Artistic Director OneSound, The Call Tour). After a free lunch, we will spend time speed-sharing, chatting in small groups, with church members who have connected with new people in new ways. Speakers will include some familiar faces: Dan Eaton, Helen Coates, Tim Jansen and Jonathan Haigh, and the event is being organised by Neil Harland. If you are not involved in Wesley Hall's Stay & Play or Walkley's heritage open day on the same day, it would be great to see you there. Book your free tickets at RadicalHospitality.eventbrite.co.uk

Ideas! It's coming up to the time of year when we start planning who to invite to workshops for the half term Fundays for the next academic year. Last year all three workshops (Fundrum, Fimo Clay and Zumba) were recommendations from congregation members, all three were wonderful. If you know anyone, or have been to a wonderful children's workshop please let me know! Any ideas from sports to crafts to music to general activities very welcome!

Junk modelling: Egg cartons would be useful (particularly ones with space for 6 eggs). We still need cereal boxes and an odd one: we need clear plastic with a number 6 in the middle of the triangle (please see photo below). This is likely to be takeaway containers or other food containers from shops or bakeries. If you have any around, or if you use any which you could save we need them by Sunday 18th August. Thanks! Jaque.

AND FINALLY...

❖ Rev. Sally's Sabbatical

Rev. Gareth Jones will care for us pastorally during the two-month period of Sally's sabbatical. Please pray for refreshment and renewal for Sally as she takes time to study and reflect and enjoy a break from the regular commitments of her ministerial duties. Rev Gareth can be contacted on 0114 2508251.

❖ Our Party

Thank you to all our friends at Wesley Hall for our lovely cards, gifts and good wishes.

Thank you for coming to our "do" - it was a bit mad, we know, and we really do appreciate how great it is to be part of this Church family. Thank you and God Bless, Jenny and Phill
